LOUISVILLE, KY.
SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 5, 1901.

Cheering to the Friends of the Union.

THE RESULT OF YESTERDAY'S ELECTION.

We present our readers elsewhere the official result of the election held in our city yesterday, for delegates to the Border State Convention. It will be seen that Louisville has responded gloriously, casting a larger vote for the Union ticket than has ever been polled in Louisville before in any election heretofore. There is no mistaking the sentiment of our people. They are for the Union, and for Kentucky in the Union. They are opposed to secession, opposed to coercion, and opposed to precipitation.

The few points outside of the city heard from, bring us equally cheering news. It is well for those who have been advocating secession that their ticket was withdrawn. It stood no show in Louisville, and it is equally unpopular in many portions of the State. Kentucky is not afraid to trust her interest and her honor in the hands of the gentlemen who composed the Union ticket. Louisville has endorsed it—the State has endorsed it. It goes before the country, with a vote, which, considering there was no opposition to call forth the people, will command the respect of the country everywhere.

We are under obligations daily to the Adams Express Company for late files of papers from all quarters of the globe.

BEAUREGARD STILL IN CHARLOTTE.—The Charleston Herald, of Tuesday last, states that Gen. Beauregard was still in that city.

The convicts in the penitentiary of Mississippi are engaged in manufacturing tents for the army of the Southern Confederacy.

The Philadelphia Press says a number of wealthy Southern families have gone North, and will spend their summer in Canada.

The Backus Home Artillery will meet at Apollo Hall, on the corner of First and Jefferson streets, on Monday, at 7 o'clock P. M.

The ladies of New Albany, we learn, will present the city guard, at that city, on Wednesday next, a splendid silk American flag.

Thanks to the gentlemanly officers of the militia who promptly furnished us with official statements at the close of the polls.

Rev. A. H. Redford, pastor of Brook Street church, has returned and will preach this morning at 11 o'clock, and this evening at 7 o'clock.

David W. Henderson is re-elected Constable in the district composed of the Third and Fourth wards, over Wm. Duncan, his opponent.

A very rich assortment of fine decorated china toilet sets, with china and in extra pieces, at Gay's China Palace, corner of Fourth and Green streets.

Those persons who have not returned the petitions to the Governor, will please return them to the Journal office to day, as they are to be sent up to Frankfort tomorrow morning.

DONATIONS.—J. S. McDonald, Esq., says the New Albany Ledger, has handed over to Mayor Burnett one hundred hands for the benefit of the poor of that city, and J. H. McMahon, Esq., has appropriated five barrels of flour to the same worthy object.

Another very large addition to the spring stock of plain and decorated china, glass and queensware, plated and Britannia ware, table cutlery, water, chandeliers, lamps, cruetaries, wooden and willow ware, with every variety of home furnishings goods at Gay's China Palace.

MORRIS ISLAND.—The Charleston Courier states that the general appearance of this now well known and famous island has been greatly changed since the 10th of April. The latter bearing on Sumpter have been removed, and many other arrangements warranted by our possession of Fort Sumpter, have been completed.

The editor of the Ohio Statesman suggests that the Legislature of Ohio again invite the Legislatures of Kentucky and Tennessee to Columbus, for, says he, who can tell what happy results may flow from it. Taking the former visit as a guide, he thinks there is great virtue in sparkling catwax, and believes its healing influence might now be all powerful.

There will be a meeting at the hall over the Opel Saloon, corner of First and Jefferson streets, on Monday evening, May 6th, at eight o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a rifle company, to be mustered into the State Guard. Members will be at no expense for uniforms. All good men, favorable to such an organization are invited to attend.

A FATAL AFFAIR.—The Hon. John C. Breckinridge spoke at Russellville on Friday. Just before the speaking, two men, named Casey and Page, got into a difficulty, but were separated before either party was injured. During the speaking, as we learn, a brother of Mr. Page and Mr. Casey became involved in a difficulty in which the former shot the latter with a pistol, killing him instantly. Page, we learn, made his escape.

MARKETS.—We have no large sales to report this morning. Our provision dealers have been very active for the past two days in increasing their stocks, and Louisville, we believe, has now a larger stock of meats than was ever before at this season of the year. The receipts have been very large from Indiana and the interior of this State, and our dealers are now prepared to fill orders promptly so soon as the embargo on the Nashville Railroad shall be removed. We saw the freight agent yesterday evening, and he assured us that he would be able to clear the depot during this day, and he prepared to receive shipments on Monday. We therefore anticipate a large business in provisions this week. The receipts of flour have been light, and all that comes in is promptly taken at full rates. There is very little superfine flour in market, and large orders cannot be filled here, except for extra qualities. All other branches of trade are dull.

POLICE COURT.—L. C. Keatch was before his Honor Judge Johnston on a felony warrant; held to bail in $100 to answer. Len. Stratton, drunk and carrying a concealed deadly weapon, and committing an assault on Frank Rait; gave bail in $100 to answer, and $200 for his good behavior for six months. Commonwealth vs. F. G. Foster vs. Sylvester Dehaas; held to bail in $100 to answer. Several persons took the final oath, and became citizens of the United States.

A small frame house on Ninth street, between Madison and Chestnut, occupied by negroes, was burned yesterday about one o'clock. Loss very trifling.
